Statistics for freight transport in January 2017

09.03.2017

Monthly statistics for January 2017 have been published.

In comparison to January 2016, in January 2017 all the basic parameters for the rail passenger transport got increased: the weight of transported cargo by 8.6%, the transport performance by 8.3% and the operational performance by 7.9%. Average distance of transportation of one ton of cargo remained approximately at the same level of 217 km.

For more information, click here.