

Statistics for rail passenger transport in September 2016

03.11.2016

Monthly statistics including data for September 2016 have been published.

The number of passengers in September 2016 rose by almost 6% in comparison to September 2015. Transport performance grew by 12%, while operating performance increased by 13%.

Taking the first 3 quarters of 2016 into consideration, number of passengers grew by 5%, transport performance by 10% and operating performance by 12%.

These results confirm the positive trend on rail passenger market in Poland.

You will find data on passenger transport here