

Statistics for passenger transport in January 2017

09.03.2017

Monthly statistics for January 2017 have been published.

In comparison to January 2016, in January 2017 all the basic parameters for the passenger transport got increased: the number of passengers by 9.4%, the transport performance by 11.8% and the operational performance by 4.5%. Average distance of transportation of a passenger was 1.3 km longer.

For more information, click here.