Thanks to GDPR you can know what data we process - and what we do with it. You can correct your data - if you found errors or request their removal. We process your data always in accordance with the law and for a specific purpose. You have the right to limit the processing of your data. We only process data that is necessary. We make sure that your data is up-to-date, reliable and true. We protect your data and ensure its confidentiality.

As an entity performing public tasks, we may limit some of your rights under the national law. If your data is necessary to achieve a public goal or provide this information would significantly limit the performance of a public task or would compromise the protection of classified information, we will not inform you about the change of the purpose of their processing and the acquisition of data. We will also not answer the question whether and what data we process.
